

Vita of John Shibley

Home Address

367 Waitman St., Morgantown, WV 26501

304-291-2352

Office

105 Armstrong Hall

304-293-7178

jshibley@wvu.edu

Education

B.S. in Education at Bowling Green State University (Speech, Theater, English) 1955-1958

M.A. at BGSU (Public Address and Theater) Thesis: "The Study of the Rhetoric of Golden Rule Jones", 1958-1959

Ph.D. at The Ohio State University (General Speech and Educational Philosophy) Thesis: "Empirical Study of Audience Response to the Concept of Liberalism", 1960-1964

Professional Teaching Experience

Bowling Green High School (English and Drama), 1959-1960

St. John's University in NY Assistant Prof (Public Speaking) 1964-1966

Hofstra University on Long Island, NY Guest Instructor (Public Address) Summer 1966

Wisconsin State University at Platteville, Wis Assistant Prof(Persuasion, General Semantics, Rhetoric), 1966-1968

Muskingum College in New Concord, Ohio Guest Instructor (Argumentation & Debate, Persuasion, Public Address) 1968-1969

West Virginia University, Associate Professor (Communication in Contemporary Society, Nonviolence & Communication Behavior, Rhetorical Theory, Appreciation of Motion Pictures, Film Criticism, Effects of Mediated Communication, Public Address) Advisor to Undergraduate majors, 1969-present

Publications

"Gandhi and King Using Nonviolence" Ohio Speech Journal, 1969-70

Film Notes, workbook multiple revised editions from 1995-present